EVOLUTION OF THE

It has been approximately 68 years since Northern High School was built, which means there have been generations of students who once walked the same halls as you. The Northern Huskies! Northern is and has been a small school with few students enrolled, but the smaller the school the closer everyone is together. Throughout the years, students have changed in looks, attire, and maybe even attitude, but we have not changed in spirit.

It's all about the blue, white, and gold! Looking back throughout the years gives an insight of the school's atmosphere of the staff and students, how they all came together to give an education while having fun during the experience. You are only in high school for 4 years, so you should enjoy the time you have while you're still young. Just like they how it used to be like back in the "good old days." This is the evolution of the husky.

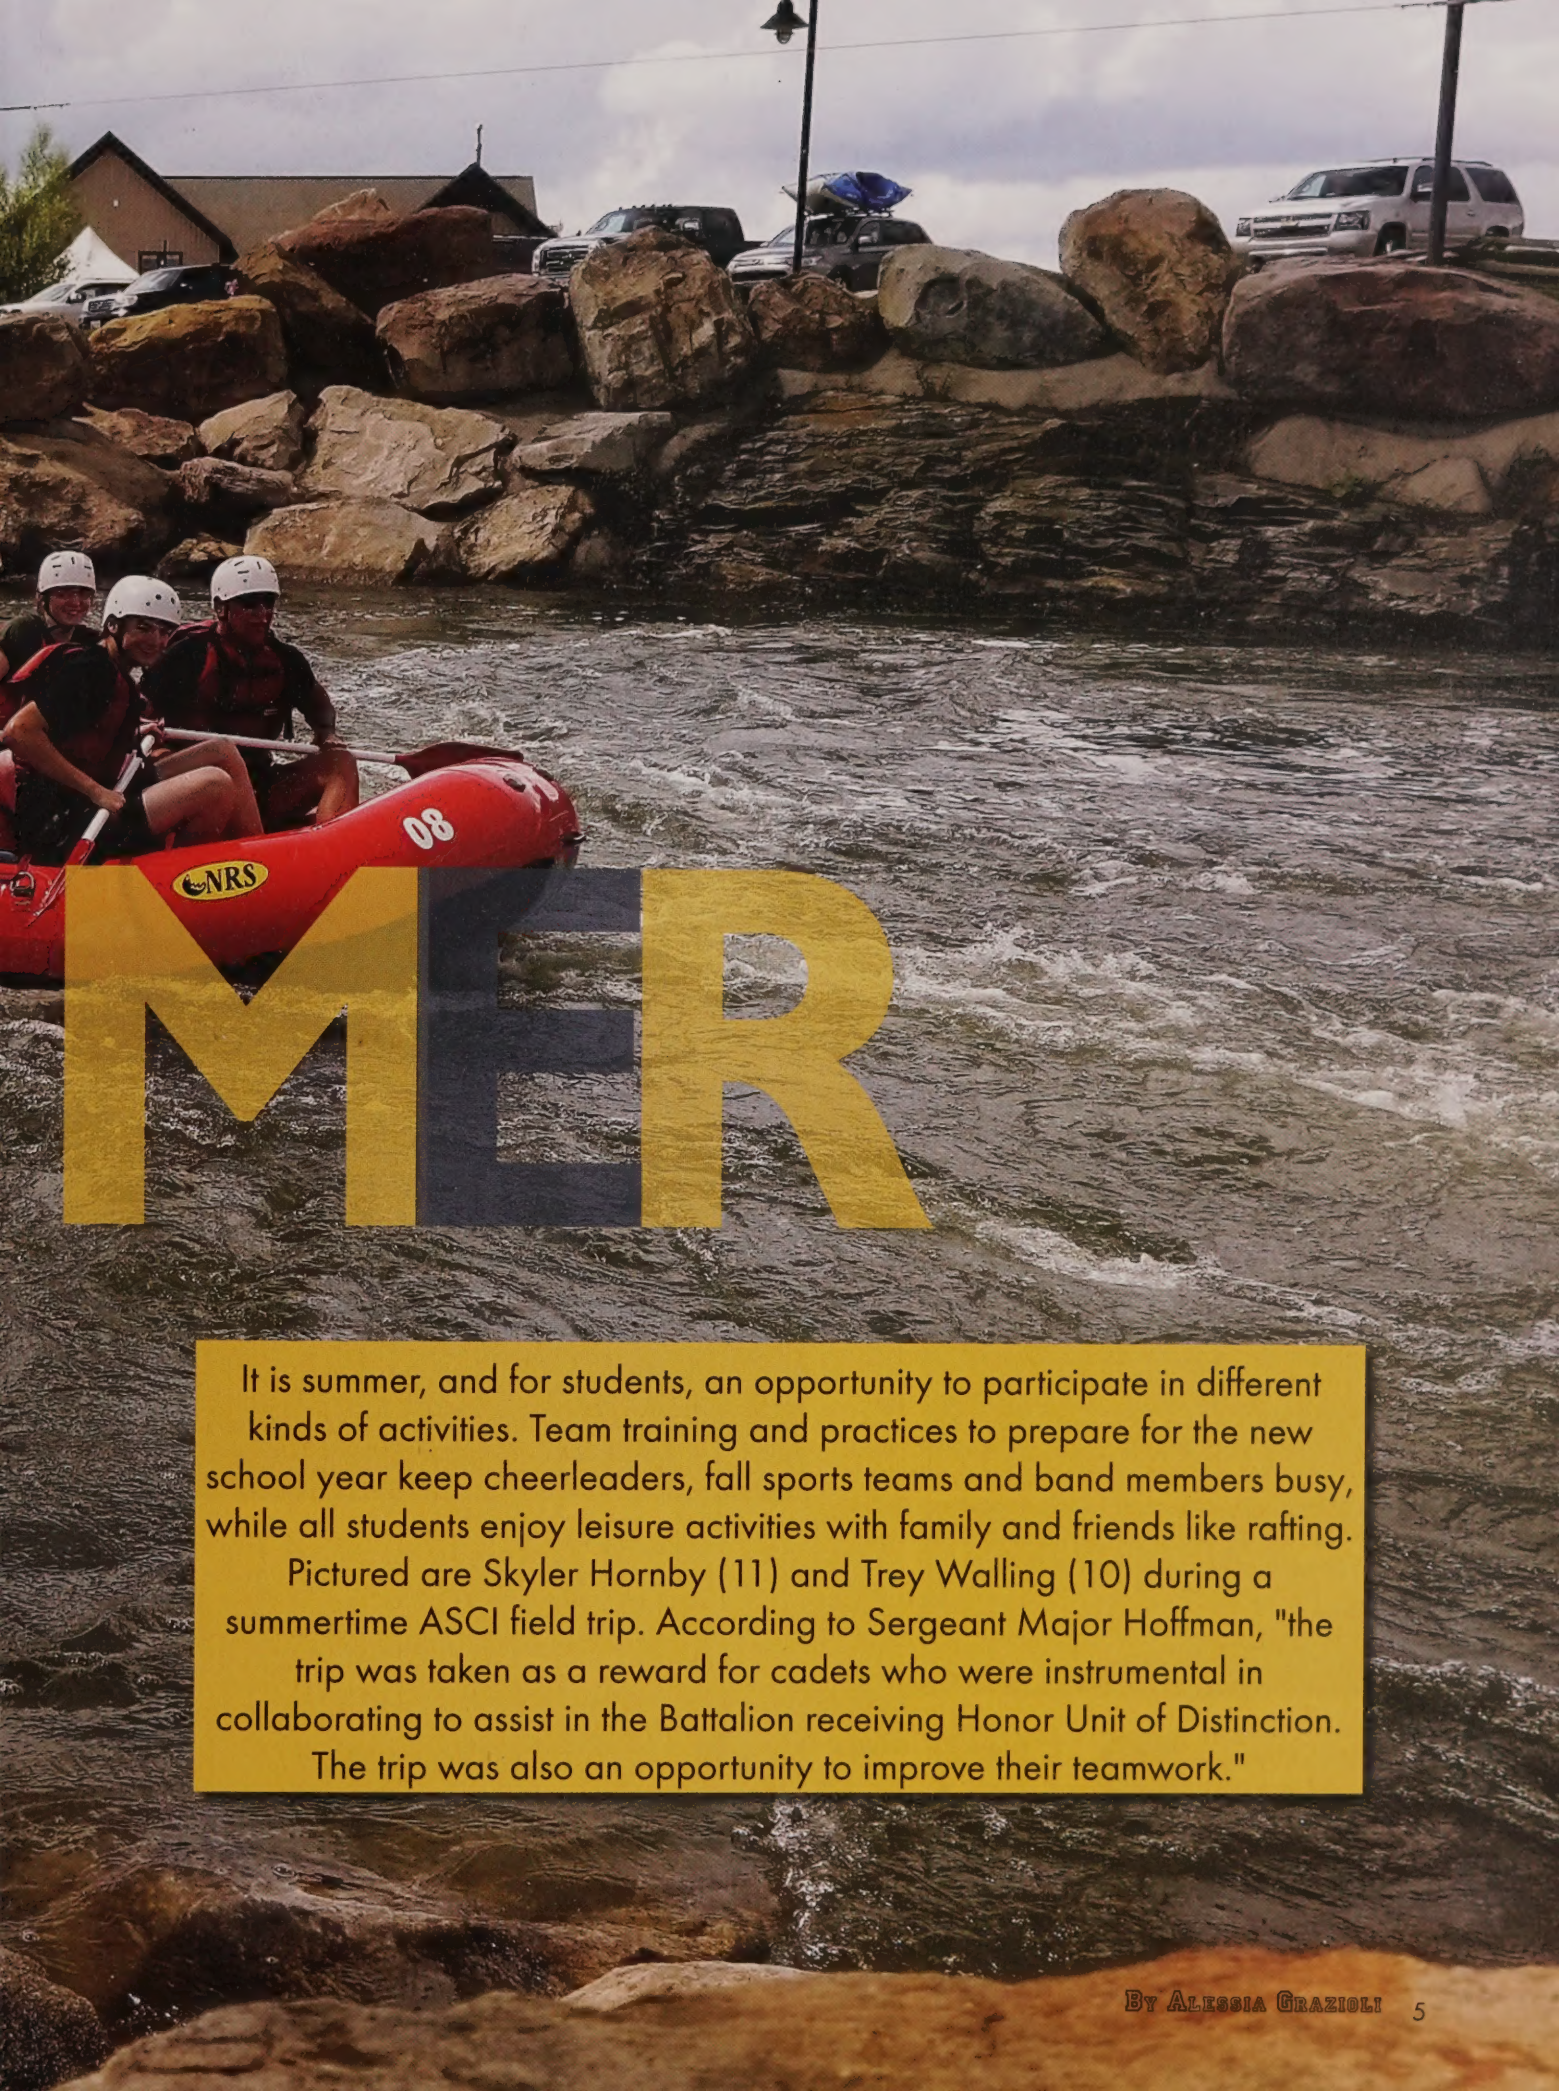
SUM



MER

It is summer, and for students, an opportunity to participate in different kinds of activities. Team training and practices to prepare for the new school year keep cheerleaders, fall sports teams and band members busy, while all students enjoy leisure activities with family and friends like rafting. Pictured are Skyler Hornby (11) and Trey Walling (10) during a summertime ASCI field trip. According to Sergeant Major Hoffman, "the trip was taken as a reward for cadets who were instrumental in collaborating to assist in the Battalion receiving Honor Unit of Distinction. The trip was also an opportunity to improve their teamwork."

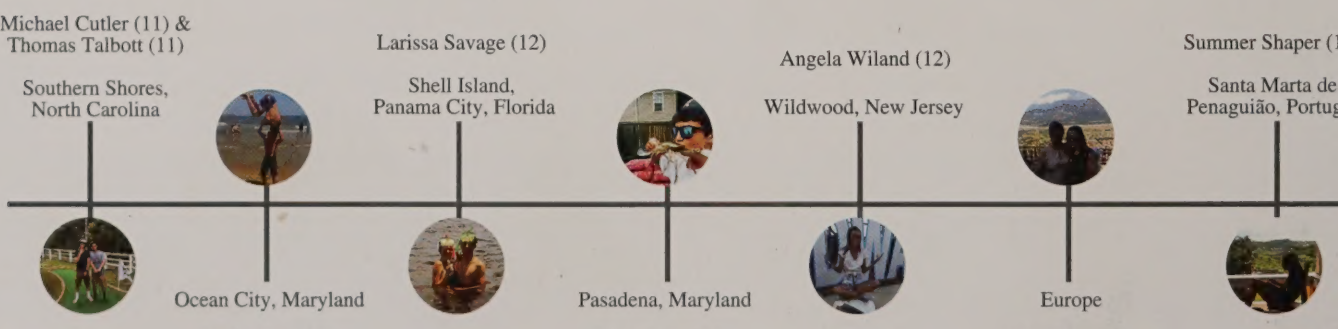
By Alessia Grazioli

SUMMER SATISFACTION

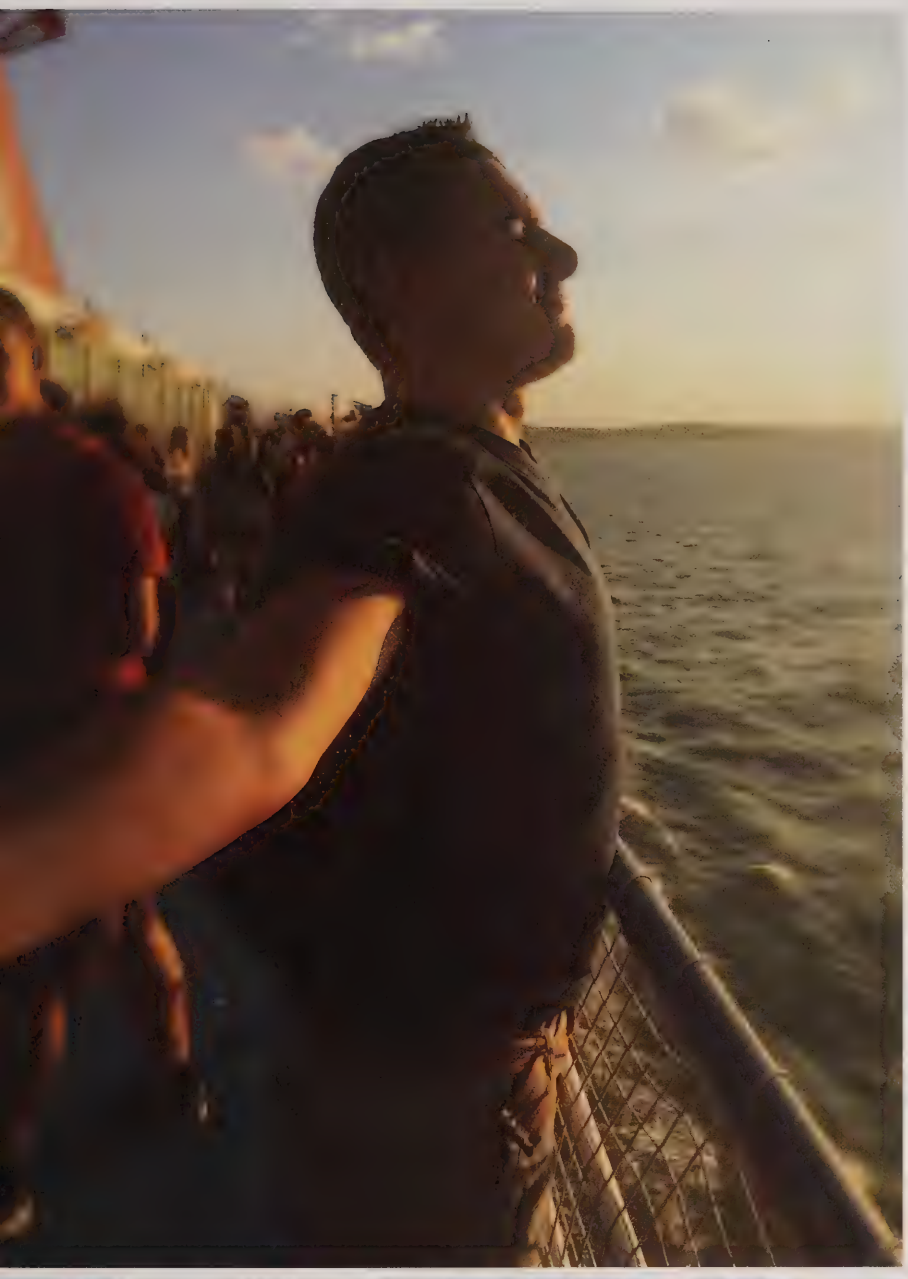
It's summer break, an occasion for both students and teachers to enjoy time off of their daily responsibilities. Summer break is a great time to travel, enjoy moments with friends and family, and most importantly sleep in. Some students have the opportunity to go on exciting and relaxing trips during their summer vacations. It makes for great stories to tell when they come back to school during the fall. It is the time of year to soak up the sun and enjoy these moments in life! Appreciate the sweet summer time!

Arrivederci! See you later!
Foreign exchange student Alessia Grazioli (12) is holding streamers during the cake's arrival to celebrate her departure from Italy to the United States. "It was one of my last days in Italy and my friends organized a party in my favorite place."

Sibling Bonding
Time to sit, relax and watch. Jade Lewis (12) and Sophie Lewis (9) sit and watch seals together during a family trip at a zoo in Washington, D.C. A lot of students go on family trips to different zoos during summer vacation.



By Angela Wiland



I'm the King of the World

Feeling the warm European breezes, Ian Eggleston (10), while heading to Greece on a night ferry through the Aegean Sea, takes a break to enjoy the view and spreads his arms to catch the breeze. "It was so hot, so I was trying to get as much wind as I could." Ian was one of a few lucky students who got to go to Europe with Mrs. Berger during the summer.

Emily Nichols (12)

Pucker up! While feeding a giraffe, Emily gets an up-close encounter with the very tall African animal at Hovatter's Wildlife Zoo. Zoos are a very fun place to go visit during the summer break.

Ian Eggleston (10) & Chloe Harvey (12)

Flessione! These two students, who went on an 18 day long extravaganza to Europe, flex for the camera in coastal Greece.

Lauren Derato (11) & Sarah Smith (11)

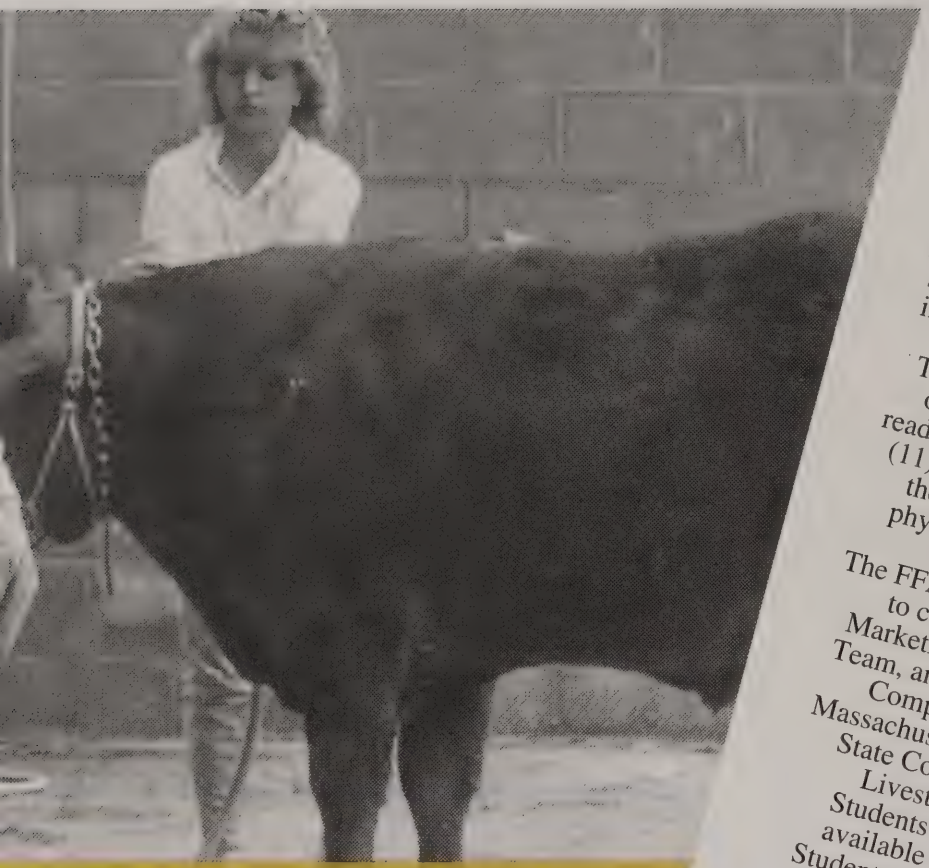
Catching the sunrise, these students wake up early to see the beautiful, bright sunrise at an OBX beach. A lot of students go to the beach with their friends during summer vacation.

Do What You You Want

You only live once. Summer Shaper (11) runs into the water at Espinho beach in Portugal. Summer enjoyed the wide golden sands of Espinho beach. "Even though it was cold, I wanted to get in the water."

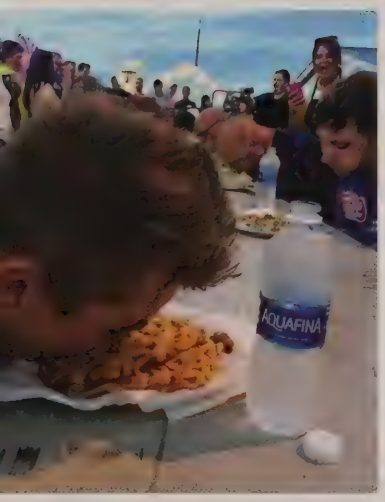
What A View

A bunch of high school students go on exciting vacations during summer break. Madison Toothman (11) gazes upon an amazing view of the Badlands in South Dakota. The Badlands provide dramatic landscapes with span-layered rock formations, steep canyons and towering spires, not a sight to miss!



Throwback '89

Summers in Garrett County are always exciting and adventurous. One of the highlights of the summer is the week of the Garrett County Agriculture Fair. Students have fun at the fair, but they also work hard. Some students raise animals to show and sell at fair. They also entertain themselves by spending time with friends and riding rides. Students help out their school sports teams and clubs by participating in car washes, fundraisers, and other events to raise money to help them in the future. The JROTC program went to Camp Dawson over the summer for a safety course, map reading, and an obstacle course. Skyler Hornby (11) attended Camp Dawson and said, "all of the cadets were tested both mentally and physically, and they all left refreshed with strengthened leadership skills." The FFA program also travels over the summer to compete in a State Convention. The Marketing Plan Team, Livestock Evaluation Team, and an individual in the Dairy Handler Competition advanced to the Big E in Massachusetts. Sadie Powell (11) attended the State Convention and competed with the Livestock Team that placed fourth. Students like to participate in the many available activities over summer break. Students may also enjoy traveling, but they always feel at home in Garrett County.



Time For Cake!

Jacob Rush (9) participates in a no-hands funnel cake eating contest at the Garrett County Agricultural Fair. Although Jake lost to Chase Mason, a Southern student, Jake's prize was eating the funnel cake and having a fun time with his friends.

SUMMER

Facing Your Fears
Skyler Hornby (11) repels down an 83-foot wall at Camp Dawson. The JROTC program teaches students to face their fears. Skyler said, "I was definitely scared, but it was a blast!"

Scrubbing Up Fun!
Sophie Lewis (9) and Briley Fazenbaker (9) support the girls' soccer team by participating in a car wash. The girls participate in multiple fundraisers throughout the year for their team.

Queen C!
Coralee Cherry (12) waves as she is being driven in a convertible. Coralee was crowned Miss Friendsville Days 2017.

What is your favorite memory from this summer?

"My favorite memory from this summer was going to summer cheer practice and goofing off the whole time."
Kendal Glass (9)

"My favorite memory from the summer was receiving Maryland State Star Greenhand."
Alexis House (10)

"My favorite memory from this summer is showing my goat at the Garrett County Fair."
Ally Kisner (11)

AUT

UMN

It is Autumn: leaves fall, temperatures drop, and Northern High turns on the heat. This fall, Wellness Day and War of Classes provided well-timed breaks from regular classes, and the pre-game bonfire provided a good opportunity to meet new friends and have fun together. Pictured are Kayla Guthrie (12) and Ronald Schartiger (12) during the fall school play A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, what a success!

By Alessia Grazioli

Falling Into Autumn

Autumn is always an exciting time for students to reconnect with friends and start the new school year. As much as students would love summer break to be longer, they find excitement in new classes and returning to sports and clubs. As the leaves start to change, students know it is time to get back to doing the activities they love.

Four In The Grave
At the Northern High bonfire, the football players and other students are getting psyched up for the Homecoming Game. The Huskies won their first four games of the season, so they held up four fingers to pose. The bonfire was a fun experience for players and fans alike.

The World's A Stage
The cast of A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum sings together for the finale. The school's play was a hit with the audience, because of its lighthearted humor.

Get In Formation

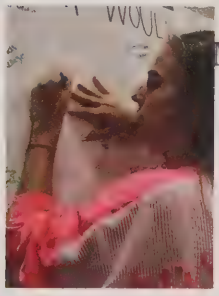
The JROTC cadets stand at attention while waiting to begin the Veteran's Day Assembly. The cadets held a flag burning ceremony, led by Savannah Lewis (12) and Commander Christopher Brown (12) followed by the rest of the flag detail and riflemen. In a JROTC class, students can build soft skills such as leadership, self-confidence, and discipline – qualities that are necessary to thrive in any career.

Lindsay Brewer (11)

Lindsay shows off a wooden birdhouse she made. Lindsay has spent a lot of her extra time this fall in the carpentry room, making projects just for fun.

Hunter Wilhelm (10) & Samuel Beeman (11)

During the Lettermen vs. Teachers basketball game, the boys played well. Despite a hard effort, the Lettermen's losing streak continues.



Madison Toothman (11)

Madison writes down what she would do differently after participating in The Real Deal, a fun experience for juniors to learn important life tricks and skills for after graduation.

Loud and Proud

The chorus sings in front of the school during an assembly. They dedicated a lot of time to practice, and it paid off when they were able to show their talent to all the other students.

An Emotional Moment

Ronald Schartiger (12) gets escorted by his parents to the field on senior night. Being a senior means having a lot of "last" moments. Ronald has been a member of the band for all four years he has been in high school.

"Four years of hard work had finally paid off as I walked out on my Senior Night," says the happy senior, Ronald.

BRAIN POWER

Question and Answer

What is the most challenging part of this class?

"The most challenging part of this class is remembering all of the steps to solve the problems."
-Ian Eggleston (10)
Algebra II

How will you use the skills you have learned in the future?

"I will use the skills I learn in the future to better improve myself and work successfully."
- Sophie Lewis (9)
Biomedical

Teamwork!
Taylor Sheehan (10) clamps the hot ceramic while Megan Lindsey (10) holds a pot under it just in case it slips. Taylor and Megan patiently waited their turn to weigh their ceramic in Chemistry class. Megan said, "the most challenging part of this class is learning new information at a fast pace".

Splat!
Kendal Glass (9) steadily drips fake blood while Raelyn Bowser (9) carefully studies Kendal's technique. Kendal and Raelyn successfully completed their PLTW lab. Kendal said, "this class can benefit me by giving me the basic knowledge I'll need in the future".

Throwback '97

Top Notch Precision!

Be Very Steady!
Parker Wilt (10) prepares to carry over his hydrated magnesium sulfate to get weighed. During Chemistry, Parker worked cautiously around the flame. Parker said he prepares for Chemistry by "doing homework, asking questions, and bringing paper and a calculator".

Practice Makes Perfect!

Left to Right: Ella Rose Warnick (10), Bethany Umbel (10), Hunter Keister (11), David Mock (11), and Ryan Harvey (10) all work on three by three applications during Algebra II. Three by three application requires using three different equations and adding an extra variable. Ella, Bethany, Hunter, David, and Ryan all focused on completing their work without any errors. Ella said her favorite part of Algebra II is "walking around and doing problems around the room, instead of sitting down the whole class". Bethany said "my favorite part is how helpful Ms. Harvey is. You can always go to her with any question you have and she takes you step by step through the problem". Mathematics class can be challenging for many students, but thanks to the help of other classmates and teachers, students can advance.

1. Getting Involved!
Garrett Foster (11) checks the magnesium lab multiple times so he can record the correct data. In Chemistry class it is important to have the correct data to fulfill the purpose of the labs.

2. Playing With Fire!
Lauren Lowery (10) carefully lights up the bunsen burner while Mackenzie Weimer (10) prepares for the flame. In Chemistry, Lauren and Mackenzie successfully completed the Magnesium Lab. Lauren said, "my favorite part about Chemistry is being able to do a lab every Friday."

3. Caution, Contents are Hot!
Garrett Emory (10) lifts the lid with forceps while Anthony Paul (10) checks to see if there were any reactions happening in the sulfate lab. Anthony and Garrett followed all safety rules to complete the Chemistry lab.

4. Tools to Succeed!
Hailey Moore (11) holds the caliper as McKenna Houser (11) checks to get the correct measurement. Hailey and McKenna work together to measure bones to find the missing person in Human Body Systems.

5. All Hands on Deck!
Mrs. Powell helps Megan Lindsey (10), Jetta Sherbin (10), and Kaitlyn Humphrey (10) as they precisely measure the pelvis in Human Body Systems. Mrs. Powell taught them how to successfully determine the gender of a skeleton by using the pelvis bone.

Patience is Key!

Jacob Lowdermilk (10) attentively participates in his magnesium sulfate lab. Jacob kept a close eye on his Chemistry experiment to see if any reactions were taking place. Jacob said, "Chemistry gives me valuable skills for the future that can get me into a good school and give me useful knowledge for the future".

Do Not Make Any Sudden Moves!

Emily Sines (9) works on the blood splatter lab during Biomedical class. This lab is to test the effect of height on the diameter of the blood splatter. Emily found the perfect height from which she should drop the blood. Emily said, "my favorite part of this class is all the fun labs we get to do."

By Caitlyn Gilpin and Lauren Lowery

MINDS IN MOTION

Rather Than Sitting Behind a Desk, Students Use Hands-On Learning.

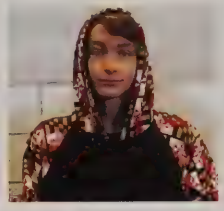
QUESTION AND ANSWER

Hannah Silbaugh (11)

The most challenging part of Carpentry is "making sure you have everything correct and done correctly."

Ethan Merrill (10)

My favorite part of Automotive is "working on the cars and being with my friends."



Glenn Walker (10)

The most challenging part of Automotive is "trying to figure out what to do and not catching something on fire or destroying someone's car in the process."

Nailed It!

Andrew Kyle (11) cautiously hammers in a nail. Andrew and his carpentry class nail together the floorboards of a shed. He said, "my favorite part of this class is when a project is finally finished after spending days working on it."

Stretch!

Caleb Rush (9) is stretching for warmups to prepare for the upcoming gym class. Stretching before any strenuous activity is important because it helps to prevent injury. Caleb said "I like being outside and playing sports. I also like having a class where you can exercise."

Concentration!

Ryan Bone (12) drills together a birdhouse for his carpentry class. Ryan uses his drilling techniques to finish up his project. Building birdhouses is a very popular project to attempt in Carpentry because it is a great way to learn simple skills to ease your way up to more advanced building.

Replacing Old Parts!

Michael Cutler (11) strategically repairs the belt on the sander. Michael made fixing the belt in carpentry his last project of the day. Michael finds Carpentry useful because it"teaches me how to build." Building can be a useful skill to anyone who may need something fixed or created.

All Hands on Deck!

A Grand Slam!
aylor Bittinger (9) makes perfect contact on the ball while playing softball in gym class. Taylor hit an inside home run that led to gaining points for her team. She said, "I prepare for this class by always stretching first and exercising on my own."

Clean Up
Robert Bittinger (11) sweeps up sawdust before closing up shop. Robert made sure to have the carpentry class cleaned up before leaving. He said, "this class will benefit me later in life because I have hands-on experience working with wood and building things."

You're Out!
Brodey Albright (9) stretches to reach first base to get the opposing team member out while playing kickball. During gym class, Brodey reacted fast when the ball was kicked right to him.

Pitchin' In!
Skyler Fratz (9) underhand pitches the ball to the batter of the opposing team. Skyler and his team played a hard-fought game against their rival team during gym class. Skyler said his "favorite part of this class is kickball."

Crack Open a Book!
Katielee Olinzock (10) works on the Physical Education vocabulary terms. It was important for Katielee to understand these words so she would know them for the test.

Running to Success!
While playing softball in gym class, Eliza Wilhelm (9) makes it to first base after a successful hit. Students enjoy going outside and playing fun - sports such as softball.

Cut to the Chase!
Anthony Goldberg (11) concentrates on keeping the board straight while cutting it. In Carpentry students must be precise and have all the correct measurements to successfully complete the projects.

Double Checking!
In the year 1997, Shaun Savage is checking his spark plugs to make sure they are able to fire.

The Husky mascot, Noah Aiken (11), gets the crowd pumped during the 2017 pep rally. Noah along with the cheerleaders energized the student body with their cheers.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Showing Our Husky Pride

The Night Before The Big Game.
Sadie Powell (11), Jakob Stolzenfels (12), McKenna Houser (11), Bryce Jones (12), and Emma Broadwater (11) attended the bonfire to get "fired-up" for the big game. During the event, students roasted marshmallows and spent tiem with their friends, all while showing school spirit.

Let's Get Fired Up
The students who attended the bonfire burned the feathers, a metaphor for beating the Frankfort Falcons, the team they would play for the Homecoming Game. The bonfire was a great way for students to get excited for the game and to have fun with one another.

SCHOOL SPIRIT? LET'S HERE IT!

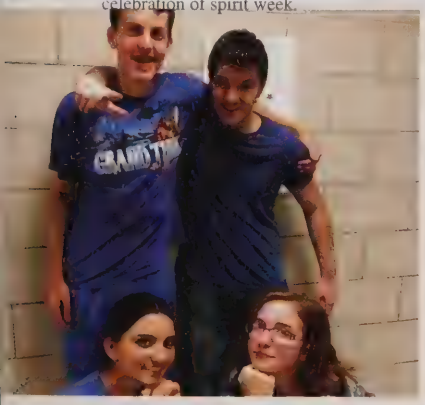
"Dressing up is my favorite part [of spirit week] because it's a fun way to show your support to the school."
Leighanna Wilhelm (12)

"I show school spirit by dressing up for the spirit week by just wearing spirit wear."
Jesse Harman (10)

"[I think having] 15 minutes every Friday where we can have time for a little school spirit event would increase school spirit."
Leah Conklyn (11)

"School spirit is important to me because it shows my support for the school."
Hannah Silbaugh (11)

Juniors Wear Blue!
Juniors, Tyler Johnson (11), David Mock (11), Sarah Smith (11), and Skyler Hornby (11) show solidarity with their classmates by wearing blue in celebration of spirit week.



Smores Anyone?
Emily Nichols (12), Alessia Grazioli (12), and Madison Toothman (11) roast marshmallows together at the homecoming bonfire. Many students had fun at the bonfire.

Do The Hoedown!
This back-country lad, Damion Fazenbaker (11), dresses up like a cowboy for Music Genre Day to show his school spirit and his interest in country music.

Proud To Be An American!
Colten Jenkins (10), Hunter Hockman (10), Keegan Pitts (10), and Kassidy Andris (10) show their school spirit by dressing up on 'Merica day.

Wednesdays We Wear Pink
Tiffany Niner (9), Abigail Hamilton (9), Chiara Fiorita (9), and Carli Haines (9) support their class by wearing pink for spirit week.

Patriotic Day
Chyanne Gardner (9), Ella Ashby (9), Taylor Dixon (9), Arizona Thomas (9), and Isaac Bittinger (9) show their Husky spirit by wearing red, white, and blue. Students had fun dressing up this day.

Blue, Gold, & White
Lindsey Skidmore (9) performs a dance during the 2017 Homecoming pep rally. The student body enjoys showing its school spirit the day of the big game.

The King and Queen
Living the royal dream, Ty Ultis (12) and Jenna Yommer (12) smile with delight as they are crowned 2017 Homecoming king and queen. It was a great memory for the pair to share.

All Glammed Up
Alexis Burow (12) goes all out for her last Homecoming dance as a Northern High School student. Senior year is full of "lasts," but the seniors make it a year to remember.

Crowning of the Princess
Faith Parandhamaia (12) is crowned by the principal of Northern High School, Mr. Reichenbecher. Faith was ecstatic to receive the royal position.

Let the Band Begin
Get into position! Northern Garrett marching band plays the National Anthem to start off the Homecoming game against Frankfort. Throughout the suspenseful game, the band kept everyone in good spirits.

All dressed up and looking pretty, Alexis House (10) and Abigail Cutler (10) take photos together before homecoming. The glitter is just another reason their homecoming experience will shine in their memories.

What made your night memorable?

"The highlight of my night was going to Smileys to eat and dancing with my friends Mikayla, Angie, Deeva, and Leighanna."
...Megan Smith (11)

"My night was most memorable from getting ready with my friends, being late for pictures, leaving Smileys before we even got our food, and dancing all night long with my friends. It wasn't all smooth sailing, but I wouldn't trade it for the world. It made my senior homecoming one to remember."

Taste of Victory
The students of Northern High School cheer as loudly as they can to show their support for the Northern Huskies. Thanks to the encouragement of the crowd, the football team beat the Falcons with a score of 34-14.

Had the Time of Our Lives

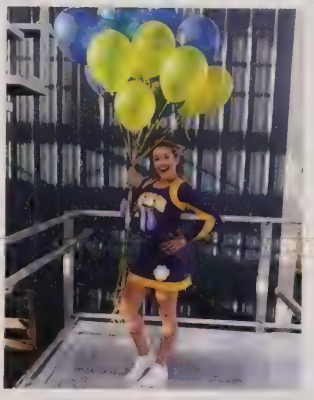
Making Memories
Everybody say 'cheese!' Taking pictures before a dance is a tradition for many students. These pictures are a great way to remember their night and all of the fun they had. Desirea Smith (12) and Lauren Derato (11) were just two of the students who had their pictures taken at the Casselman Bridge. The bridge is a popular spot due to the beautiful scenery it provides.

Proud To Be A Husky!

Carrying on the tradition, Northern's JROTC members start the game off with the traditional flag ceremony. JROTC always works hard during presentational ceremonies for school events.

WE ARE NORTHERN HUSKIES

If You Got Spirt, Let Us Hear It!
The student section, on their feet, cheers with exhilaration throughout the 2017 Homecoming game. With faces painted and blue and gold attire, the students demonstrated their full potential of school spirit. Throughout the years, Northern has shown its immense support for our football team.



Let's Get Fired Up!
Alexis Burrow (12) shows her support and excitement for the team with blue and gold balloons. These were just a few of the decorations set up around the school and the bleachers to motivate the football team during the Homecoming game.

Throwback '69

Throughout history!

Through the years of Northern High School, football has been a very popular sport for athletes and fans alike.

Different Shades of Blue

It's game time for the Huskies! Both Northern and Frankfort anxiously wait in anticipation for the time to play. Bryce Jones (12), Travis Georg (12), Eli Eggleston (12) and Peyton Carr (11) await the coin flip against Frankfort. Northern plucked the feathers off the Frankfort Falcons, winning 34-14. Around the 1st half, the Falcons were only 5 points away from our score, but with dedication, the Huskies made the jump from 19 to 34 to end the game with a win. Having a large student body come out to support the huskies was a huge confidence booster for the players.

A Moment In Time

You must remain focused! Varsity football player Carsyn King (11), with the ball in hand, is caught in between Northern and Tucker County football teams. He has to remain calm and focused to win the upper hand and run the ball. Northern had their second successive win of the 2017 season against Tucker County High School. Winning 39-6, giving them a 2-0 winning streak early in the season.

The Huskies huddle together to say a prayer before they start the game. Praying brings the girls closer together and keeps them focused to play a successful game.

Setting The Tone

Hailey Moore (11) sets the ball, hoping for a kill from her teammate. The kills racked up against Southern as the Huskies finished with a win for their second game of the season. The volleyball team played against Southern four times throughout the season, winning every game against them.

Setting It Up

Samantha Kennell (12) sets to her teammate who hits the ball to the opposing team, Allegany. Samantha has been a setter for Varisty since her sophomore year. The team won all three sets and Allegany High School didn't win any.

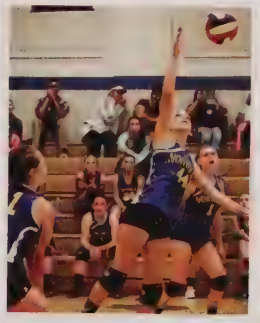
What do you think is a strength for your team this season?



Taylor Dixon (9)

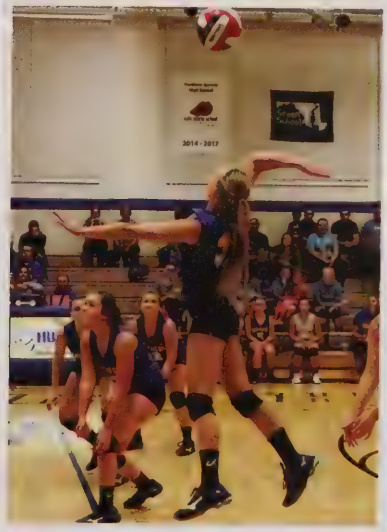
"A major strength of my team is our way of coming together as a family, win or lose."

Bailey Burdock (12)

"It was easy being a strong team because we were all such good friends, and we have played together the past three years."

Mikayla Wilt (11)

"The biggest strength for the team is we have all been playing the sport for years. We all contribute to the team in different ways, and that makes the team better."



Flying High

Kayley Sisler (12) jumps up to hit the ball to score a point for her team. Kayley has been an outside hitter on Varsity since her sophomore year. Kayley ended her high school volleyball career with a winning season.

Passing Up the Competition

Mckenna Houser (11) digs a hit from her opponent. Mckenna is a libero, which means she only plays the back row. McKenna says, "I like being a libero because it is fun and challenging."

Thomas Talbott (11)

Take A Minute To Relax

Bailey Umbel (12) waits his turn to putt on Hole #9 at the Thousand Acres Golf Club. Everyone who participates in golf tournaments should be very well-mannered and polite towards their opponents.

Focusing On A Win

Thomas Talbott (11) putts against his rivals as his competitors look on at the Oakland Country Club. Concentration is key to making a successful shot. The pressure of the competition does not affect Thomas.

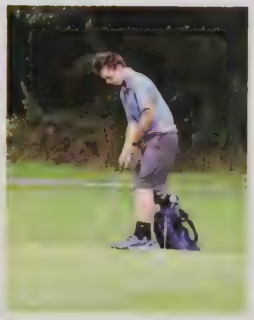
Strategy Time

Golf coach, Barb Goehringer, sits on the golf cart, discussing with player, Anthony Goldberg, (11) strategies for the next hole to be played.

What is the most challenging thing about golf?

Anthony Goldberg (11)
"Letting the club do the work for me."

Evan Beachy (9)
"Consistency. It takes a lot of practice to be able to get a good swing every time."



Thomas Talbott (11)
"Hitting the ball where you want it to go and keeping a cool head."

Katlyn Weimer (9) passes the ball up the field after stopping the other team's striker. Katlyn is a freshman defender who has worked hard during all games and practices to play to her full potential.

Strong Bond

Teammates and sisters, Jade Lewis (12) and Sophie Lewis (9) share an emotional embrace during senior night. This was the only year Jade and Sophie played on the high school team together, so it was hard for them to see the season coming to an end.

Nutmegged!

Gracie Metts (11), a striker and mid-field player, kicks the ball between an Allegany Camper's legs, causing her to lose control. Soccer players call this being "nutmegged."

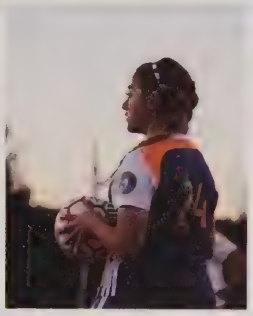
Racing to Win

Lindsay Brewer (11) sprints toward the ball, trying to get there first. Lindsay participated in Cross Country her freshman year and puts her training to use during soccer games. Although the season had ups and downs, Lindsay said, "I think we all played our hearts out, but sadly it wasn't enough. I can't wait until next season."

STAR SENIORS

Cassidy Murphy (12)

"Playing with the same girls I've played with since childhood" is what I like most about this team.



Alanna Kinney (12)

"I try to contribute leadership, effort, dedication, and encouragement" to my team.

Jacquelyn Morgan (12)

"My favorite memory with this team was freshman year at the soccer campout playing night soccer."

Escaping The Competition

Angela Wiland (12), a striker, gets through the defensive line to take a shot on the goal. Angela made one goal out of three shots this season. "I have only played on the team for two years unlike the other seniors that have been playing all four years, but I would say even if we didn't have the best season I had a lot of fun with the team. I'll miss you all."

Fake 'em out!

Charity Moser (12), a defensive midfielder, gets ready to kick a long ball across the field to her teammate. Charity has played on the Varsity soccer team for all four years of high school.

Eli said his favorite part about playing in front of a home crowd is "seeing your friends in the stands and seeing them support your team." Eli had one goal throughout the season. Any goals at all really help the team as a whole.

Blue for Northern.

Ty Kinzey (12) throws a ball in that was kicked out of bounds by the competing team. Ty is known for his colorful hairstyles on and off the field. Ty decided to dye his hair blue in the spirit of his school, little did he expect that it would later rain and his dye would remain all over his perfectly white jersey. That didn't stop Ty, of course. He still went in full momentum and played as hard as he possibly could.

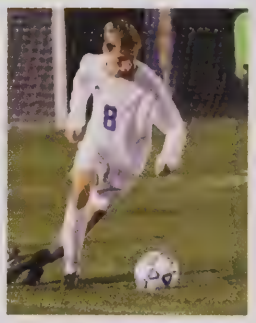
An Inside View

Elliott Schilpp (11)

"The most difficult thing about soccer is pushing your mind and body to the limit in every game."

Trey Rouse (12)

"To prepare for an upcoming game I listen to music to get pumped up and clear my mind."



Dylan McCann (11)

"When competing in front of a home crowd I love seeing and hearing the student section cheer us on."

Play, Fight, Win!

Dillan Orendorf (11) focuses on making a goal for his team. The team's hard work and dedication paid off. They earned a 2-0 victory against the Frankfort Falcons. Dillan stated the most difficult thing about playing soccer is "staying mentally strong because if you aren't, you will play very poorly." Dillan had an excellent season scoring 14 goals, 4 of which were game-winners, and he had 6 assists.

Going For the Goal!

Devin Orner (11) concentrates on keeping the ball from his opponent while moving down the field. JV fought hard but came up short for a loss to Southern. Devin's favorite thing about playing soccer is "being with my friends."

Bringing it back.
Cross country returned to Northern in 2013 and has continued to be a sport students are interested in.

Take a deep breath.
After the cross country team pushed themselves as hard as they can during a meet, Jarrett Kelly (12), Jaden Lais (12), Jakob Stolzenfels (12), Brandon Pickrel (10), and Angelo Ruggiero (12) still find a reason to smile and rejoice in the moment. After racing to the finish line at their home meet, the boys were able to place first.

Pace Yourself!

Sophie Lewis (9) and Raelyn Bowser (9) run side-by-side at the Pumpkin Run at Broadford Park on October 21st, placing11th, and 12th, respectively. The cross country team took pleasure in running through such a scenic course. Both girls also participate in two fall sports, varsity soccer, and varsity cross country.

Your Limits Do Not Define You!

Brandon Pickrel (10) and a former cross country runner for Northern High School, Tony Walker, run together at the Pumpkin Run. Brandon has been running cross country for two years and shows diligence at every meet.

On Your Mark...Get Set...Go!

Mykenzy Peck (9), Raelyn Bowser (9), Ava Ashby (11), Ella Rose Warnick (10), Kylee Peck (12), and Bailee Upole (11) start out at Boonsboro.

What is your most memorable race?

Jaden Lais (12)

"At Clear Spring, junior year, we, (the soccer guys) were able to help get everyone to states."

Ava Ashby (11)

"The Pumpkin Run last year because we ran in below freezing weather and snow."

Darrien Bell (10)

"My first race because I thought it was the worst."

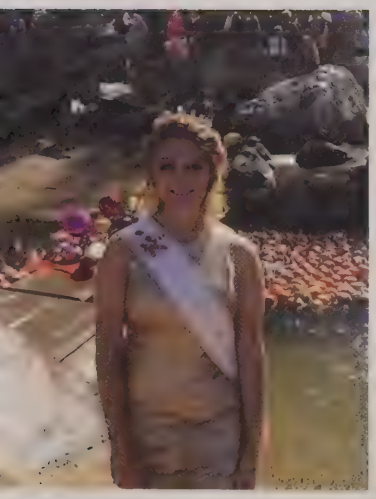
Autumn is a time for students at Northern High to show their creative and festive personalities. From carving pumpkins to dressing up for Halloween, students can always find something to do in this season. Fall sports typically come to a close during this season around November. For the students, that means they get to spend more time with their friends doing fun fall activities. Many students typically go outside during this time of year to look at the beautiful colors in the changing leaves and enjoy the cool breezes. In the picture to the right, Northern High School Band warms up together before the Autumn Glory Parade. The band members have a tradition to dress up for the parade every year. It makes playing in the cold just a bit more worth it. "The Autumn Glory Parade is always a super fun, long day for the band with a parade and a competition. It always brings us closer together," says Ronald Shartiger.



Ready Set, Pumpkin?

Chilling In Garrett County

Snowboarding, skiing, ice skating, snowball fights, holiday meals, and snow days are all things students look forward when it comes to the winter season. Show and Tell

Mrs. Berger's first period English class present their character projects on To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee. Students were expected to choose and analyze their favorite character. They had to represent the characters physical traits and personality traits in the project. Kaleb Montgomery (9) said this class is beneficial because, "I can learn new methods to write." He also said he prepares for English by "bringing everything [he] needs, including a positive attitude."

2. Down To Business
Logan Mason (9) concentrates on listening to an audio activity during English. Students in Mrs. Berger's class consider how friends and neighbors can work together to survive disasters while listening to an NPR broadcast.

3. Trial and Error
Cody Humberson (11), Ryan Wilt (11), and Michael Fazenbaker (11) work as a group to learn about important people during the Enlightenment. Students in Ms. Logan's World History class learned about important events that took place between 1650-1800.

4. Just A Touch Up
Casey Rounds (11) touches up her friend's sketchbook. The sketchbook is a photo of a galaxy done by Amber Jamison (11).

5. Copy Cat
Lucas Broadwater (10) works on trying to replicate a photo of some blueberries. He works with tempera paint to try match the colors while working with shadows and highlights. This is good practice for those in art who want to make more realistic pieces.

Action!

Nicholas Opel (11) and Damion Fazenbaker (11) read a scene from a play called of Mice and Men, by John Steinbeck. Mrs. Virts's English class reenacted this play so they could get a better understanding of the feelings and actions of the characters. Nicholas said my favorite part of this class is "I learn a lot and have fun."

BUILDING SUCCESS

Students Build Academic Knowledge To Improve Vocational Success

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Logan Mock (9)

"My favorite part of Introduction to Engineering Design is learning how to use Inventor more efficiently."

Amy Wilburn (10)

"The most challenging part of Introduction to Engineering Design is when Mr. Kirchner makes us do Powerpoints."

Tara Durst (9)

"Introduction to Engineering Design can benefit you because you learn basic computer and measurement skills."

Skills for Everyday

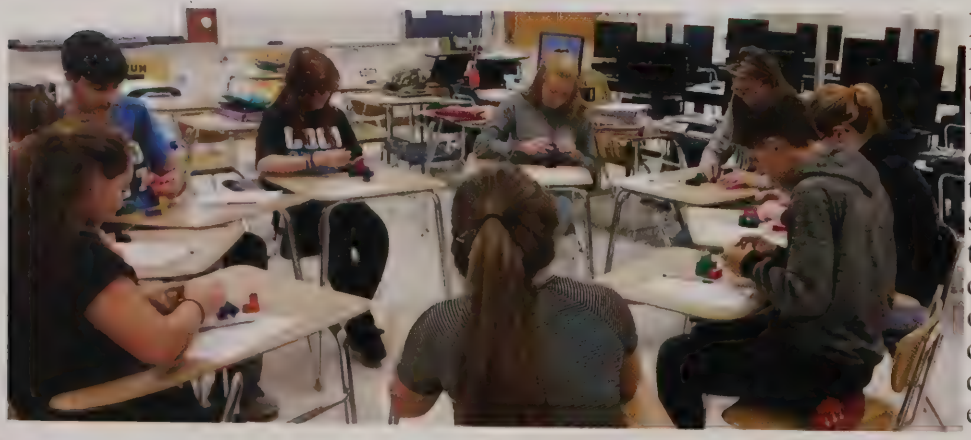
Matthew Glotfelty (11) strategically repairs the alternator in his truck. Matthew used the skills learned in his automotive class to fix his truck. Matthew said his favorite part of the automotive class is "getting to work on vehicles and fix problems. If I have something wrong with one of my vehicles, I can work on it."

Learning from a Distance.

Jacob Gilpin (10) looks for the correct size socket for the ratchet. Jacob works hard in automotive class to successfully fix any car that needs parts replaced. Jacob said "this class teaches me life skills. I can use these skills in the future instead of paying someone to fix my car."

Discovery

Jesse Harman (10) makes a breadboard with the help of Mr. Kirchner in Digital Electronics. Jesse wired up the breadboard to make a temporary circuit. Jesse said the most challenging part of this class is "making intricate breadboards."



Pieces of a Whole

Mrs. Meekins's second-period class put together their cube projects. In Introduction to Engineering Design class, Mrs. Meekins's students color their pieces of the cube. Mrs. Meekins said, "during the course of the project the students must design a cube solution complete multi views (both by hand and on the program Inventor), assemble the cube on Inventor, create a prototype, and collect statistics for mathematical evaluation on both the solver and the cube."

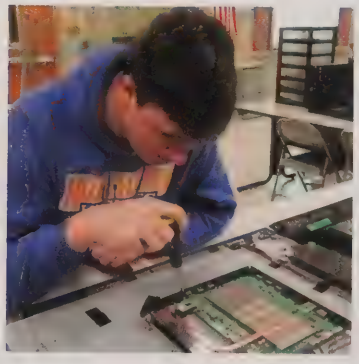
Aiming for Achievement

Building Leadership
vin Orner (11), Anthony Glotfelty (11), and Levi Enlow (9) work together to build the foundation of the new barn. Mrs. Yost and her students were an integral part of the construction of the much needed barn.

Pulling it all Together
Olivia Wilhelm (9) makes sure that all of the pieces of the cup project go together perfectly. In Introduction to Engineering Design, their class was required to construct a cup and other items to go along with the cup in the Inventor software. Olivia said, "the most challenging part is using some of the equations, like the equation for density."

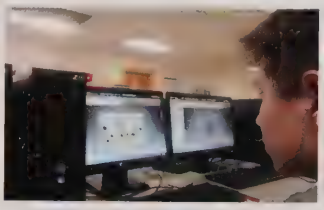
Presentation
Carder Stakem (9) completes the visual design Powerpoint in Introduction to Engineering Design. Students completed this powerpoint so they had a better understanding of the principles and elements. Carder said this class can benefit you because "it gives you a better understanding of computer software."

Piecing it All Together
Noah Aiken (11) works on fixing a TV in Principles of Engineering Class. Noah uses the skills learned to fix a large variety of different types of technology. Noah said, "my favorite part of this class is coming in to learn about engineering each morning and seeing the Kirch."



A Different Perspective
April Miller (9) oncentrates while making ıer cup project perfect. In Introduction to ngineering Design, April ıses techniques to put all of the pieces of the cup together. April said this lass will "teach you how to use technology."

Step by Step...
Celeste Ticona (9) works on creating covalent bonded molecules with Lewis dot structures. Based on the puzzle pieces, the students were able to determine the number of bonds and non-bonding electrons.



All in One Piece
Ryan Kelly (10) works diligently to piece together the cube puzzle project. In Introduction to Engineering Design, the class had to pull the pieces of their cube apart to show how to put it all together. Ryan said the most challenging part of this class is "learning how to do certain things in Inventor."

A Closer Look
Jamie Rayner waters the flowers in the greenhouse so they look their best. She said, "the best thing about helping out in the greenhouse is having a school period that is not just about bookwork and lectures..."

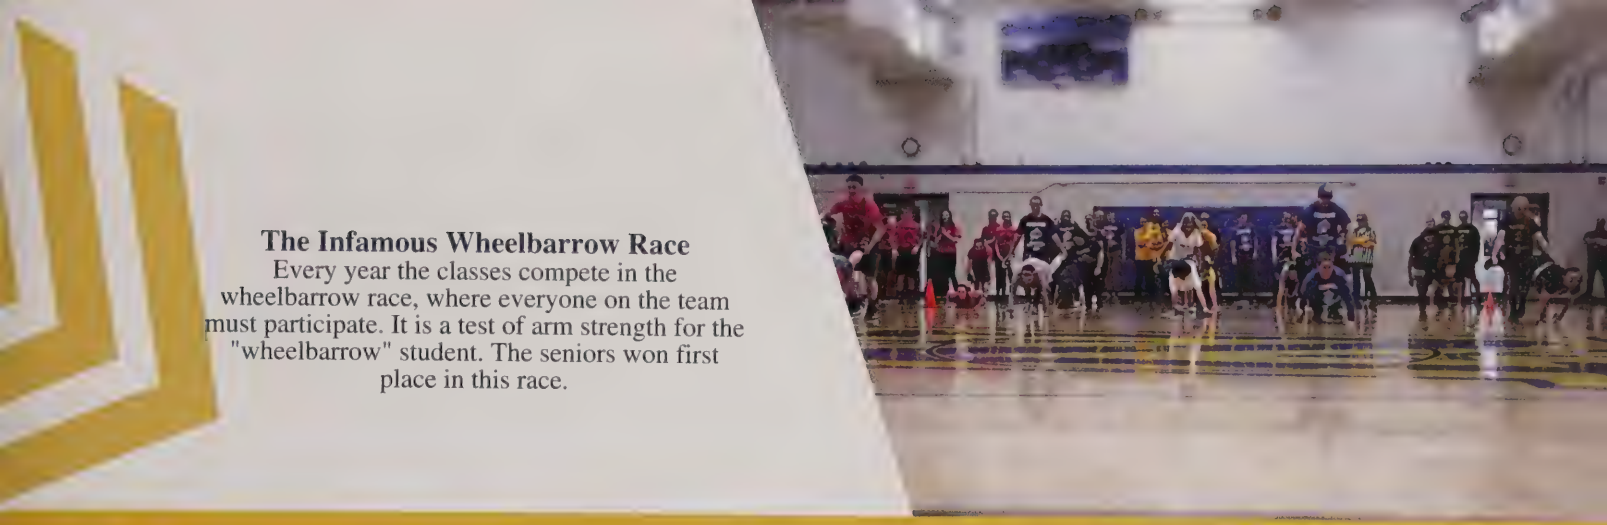
Seniors For The Win
Carly Rodeheaver (12), a contributing competitor for her senior class, races in the balloon relay. The seniors came out victorious for the War of The Classes, winning with 52 points.

WAR OF THE CLASSES

I Woke Up In Feast Mode

Making Memories Last
Carly Rodeheaver (12), Kayley Sisler (12), Faith Parandhamaia (12), Alexis Burow (12) and Ava Roberts (12) enjoy their last ever War of the Classes at Northern High School.
This group of girls volunteered to battle against the classes every year they were in high school.



The Infamous Wheelbarrow Race
Every year the classes compete in the wheelbarrow race, where everyone on the team must participate. It is a test of arm strength for the "wheelbarrow" student. The seniors won first place in this race.

WHAT WAS YOUR FAVORITE ACTIVITY IN THE WAR OF THE CLASSES?

"The dance off because I got to watch a 38 year-old teacher (Mr. Berger) out dance a bunch of students."

Andrew Kyle (11)

"My favorite thing about war of the classes would probably be the dance competition and seeing Joel kill it while dancing with Mrs. Ahern; it was the highlight of my day."

Ava Roberts (12)

Emma Broadwater (11)

"My favorite activity was the hula hoop caterpillar, because the sophomore class worked as a team to complete the race."

Caitlyn Gilpin (11)

Sophomore Teamwork
Rileigh Lowdermilk (10), focused under pressure, maneuvers through hoop and passes it on to the next contestant.

Pull Yourself Together
Juniors, Samuel Beeman, Hunter Keister, Elliott Philpp, Peyton Carr, and Emma Broadwater try to pull themselves into a win.

Break Dancing Freshman
Xavier Pryor (9) shows off his dancing and gymnastic skills by doing a handstand during the dance off. Unfortunately, his stunts were not good enough against Mr. Berger.

This Means War
Seniors, Braidan Thomas, Carly Rodeheaver, Bryce Jones, Ty Kinzey, and Eli Eggleston battle against the Juniors in tug of war. The seniors came out victorious.

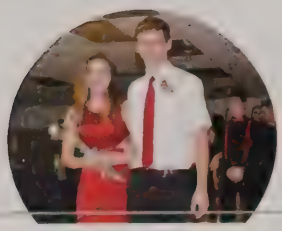
Shake, Shake, Shake
Mrs. Shirko shakes her tail feathers, trying to be the first to empty her tissue box. It wasn't enough to win. The freshman class beat everyone for first place in this event.



Smile and Grin
Kyla Hull (9) and Matthew Platter (10) both grin at the camera as they walk down the cafeteria to wait and see who will become the ninth grade princess.

2018 Court
Members of the 2018 Snowball Court try to wait patiently to see who will win for their class.

Girls Do It Better
Faith Parandhamaia (12) was escorted by Jenna Yommer (12) at the Snowball Dance. Faith became Snowball Queen that night.

Dancing The Night Away

It's A Crowd
Many students showed up to enjoy the 2018 Snowball Dance. The lights and decorations transformed the cafeteria for the fun-filled evening. "I think the decorations were my favorite part of the whole dance," says Angela Wiland.

Being a senior is full of "lasts." How was your last Snowball dance?

"Snowball was a lot of fun. I enjoyed getting to spend time with my friends."

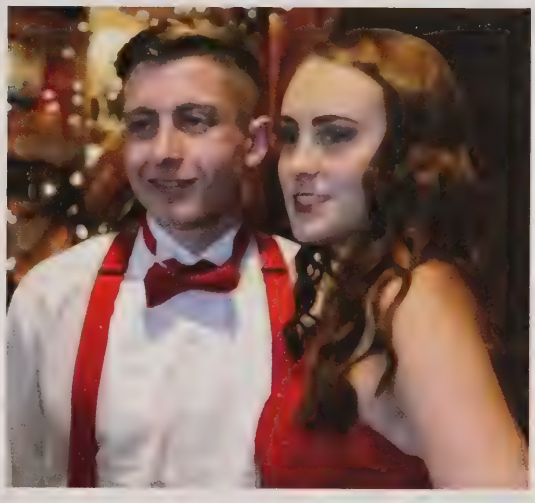
Let Us Eat!
Many students went out before Snowball to enjoy a meal and fun at Smileys Bar & Grill in McHenry, Maryland.
Smileys is a very popular place for students to go before a school dance.

Take It Back Now Y'all
Students who went to the 2018 Snowball dance, danced to the Cha Cha Slide on January 13th. The Cha Cha Slide is a classic song played during school dances.

NEON LIGHTS!

Having A Good Time
Many students like Ava Roberts (12), Haley Ross (12), Alexis House (10) Victoria House (9), Madison Toothman (11) and Bailee Upole (11) took pictures at the dance. The bright and colorful neon lights made for a good aesthetic for nice pictures. Taking photos with your best friends is very common during school events. Best friends, Emily Nichols (12) and Charity Moser (12) take a Polaroid picture as they were all dressed up and ready to go to their senior year Snowball Dance.

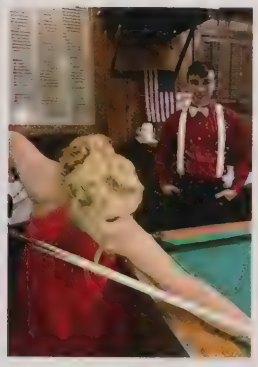


Matching Attire

Michael Fazenbaker (11) and Katelynne Field (10) wear the coordinating colors red and white to look stylish together. Many couples spend time coordinating their looks prior to the big night.

LADY HUSKIES ALL GLAMMED UP

Looking Our Absolute Best
Emily Frazee (11), Holly Schlossnagle (12), Jenna Yommer (12), Haley Ross (12) and Faith Parandhamaia (12) pose for a picture while they look their absolute best. Both boys and girls get all glammed up to go to Northern's dances and events.



Before The Fun
Savannah Lewis (12) and her date play a round of pool at the American Legion in Grantsville before they head to Snowball.
"I was there because my mom didn't get to see me dressed up and she works there," says Savannah. Savannah and her date surprised her mom with their matching attire and glamorous looks and then enjoyed a game of pool.

Own The Mat

Micah Rollan (11) wrestles at a home match against Mountain Ridge. Micah started wrestling only one year ago but practices hard with the team to be able to participate and show his skills.

Refuse To Lose!

Wrestling in the weight class 126, Jesse Harman (10) rolls his Mountain Ridge competitor over for an attempt to gain the advantage. Jesse is a two-year wrestler for Northern Garrett High and has shown vast improvement.

Winning is a Habit

Hunter Wilhelm (10) weighing in at 138 pounds, goes up against his Allegany opponent. Following in his older brother's footsteps, Hunter plans on wrestling throughout high school.

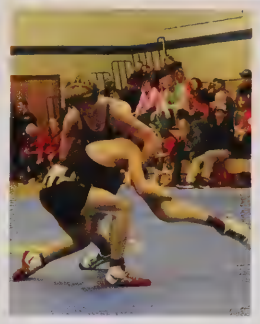
Wrestling in the weight class 132, Josh Thomas (9) competes against an opponent from Southern, a well-known rival. Josh, like his older brother Tyler Thomas, has become a tough competitor. The boys as a team lost to Southern 15-55. Better luck next time boys! Good job wrestlers!

An Inside View



Hunter Wilhelm (10)

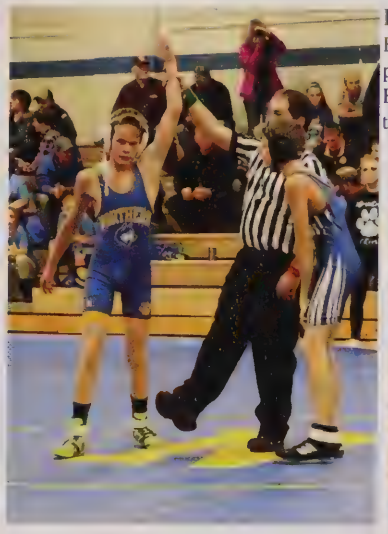
"I have wrestled for 11 years, I don't really have rivals. I talk to a lot of the wrestlers and have become friends with them, but when I wrestle them I treat them the same and try my best to win."

Garrett Beaulieu (12)

"A typical day for a wrestler consists of "Putting on pj's or sweatpants and running sprints. Then we drill double legs and do tons of cardio."

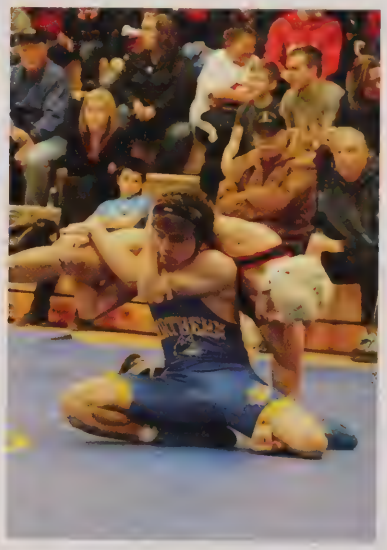
Matthew Casteel (10)

"The thing that made me [want to] wrestle this year was to get more involved in sports and because it looked fun. The best part was going to tournaments and wrestling there."



Embrace the Grind

Hunter Dale (10), weighing in at 145 pounds, has wrestled for the past two years. Hunter has shown improvement in his skills throughout that time.



The Face of A Winner

Shane Fink (9), one of the smallest wrestlers, weighing in at 106, wins his match against Allegany. No matter the weight class wrestling can be and is a very tricky and competitive sport.

THAT'S HOW WE ROLL

Northern High School Bocce

Let it Roll Freshman, Jason Sines, rolls his bocce ball with full concentration during a bocce match. This is Jason's first year playing bocce ball.

BEST MATCH OF THE YEAR

"Coach Wengerd and I both felt the Districts were our best match. Both our "Blue" and "Gold" teams played fantastic matches at GC. They dominated all four teams they faced and just had an all-around great competition. The partners were engaged with our athletes and encouraged them during the games to make it a really cool experience for everyone on the team." -Coach Dewitt

Ella Ashby (9)

"What I enjoyed most about bocce is having the experience of playing a different sport, and with bocce, it gives you something other sports don't: helping students with special needs is always a good experience."

Sintija Anderson (12)

"What I enjoy about playing bocce is that we get to have fun and win games. When playing it, we are supposed to have fun and to not get angry when you have lost a game."

Bridget Wiemer (11)

"What I enjoy most about bocce is getting to meet new people and working with the kids with different and special needs. Getting to see them smile shows me that they are happy to be accepted and involved in a school sport."

BEST GAME

Northern (44) at Keyser (47)
We played a great game as a team. Came back from a 29-18 halftime deficit. Jenna Yommer 10 points, Carly Rodeheaver 9, Mikayla Wilt 18 points (BIG 3 pointer), Faith Parandhamaia held their star point guard (1st Team All-AMAC) well below her average to 17 points for the game.

Northern (49) at Allegany (47)
1st win against Allegany since 2011. Carly Rodeheaver 14 points, Jenna Yommer 9, Mikayla Wilt 10. Up 5 at half. Up 38-28 at the end of the 3rd. Senior leadership helped us hold on to win.

Northern (39) vs. Calvary (32)
6-8 end of the 1st. 14-17 half. 27-27 end of the 3rd. We were losing up until halfway through the 3rd. We struggled in every aspect in the game. Jenna Yommer played an inspired game on both ends of the floor. Both teams were undefeated in the SSMAC. We talked about this being a game of wills and if we were going to win, someone needed to step up and make it happen. Jenna lead us, she got rebounds, put backs, steals, scored when we needed it the most, and made free throws. Jenna scored 17 points. Clinched the SSMAC Championship.

The winter season is a time of year in which students get to enjoy lots of indoor and outdoor activities. Students attend events at the Igloo - Northern's indoor gymnasium - cheering on the basketball players, bocce ball players, and wrestlers. These events lure students out to show off their school spirit by cheering on the student athletes. The school also provides opportunities for students to enjoy outdoor activities such as ice fishing and volunteering with the Blind Skier Program. Many students spend their time skiing or snowboarding at The Wisp Resort, while others enjoy staying warm and watching movies or spending time with family on snowy days. Whatever they prefer to do, winter brings something for everyone to enjoy.

The Fight Against Cancer

Northern High School has been a proud contributor to the American Cancer Society by participating in Relay For Life and raising funds. This year they celebrated 20 years in the fight against cancer in Garrett County.

RELAY FOR LIFE

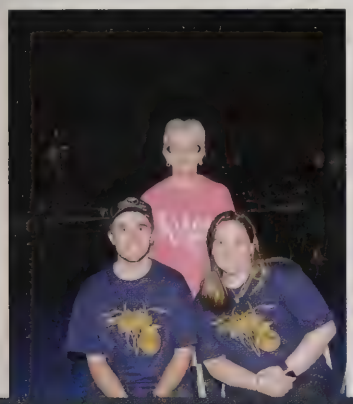
"There's No Place Like Hope"

Follow The Yellow Brick Road

Four relay participants test out the cutouts made by Mr. Paxton and some art students. The cut outs are characters from The Wizard of Oz. The friends smile as they pose as the scarecrow, th tinman, Dorothy, and the cowardly lion.

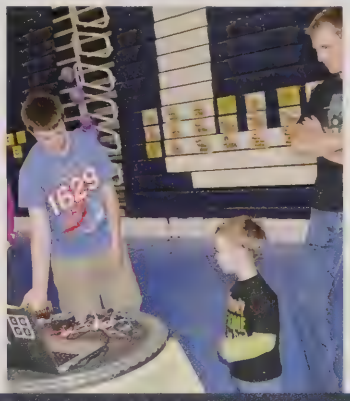
Working Together
Volunteers, Jacquelyn Morgan (12), Jenna Yommer (12), Cassidy Uphold (11), McKenna Houser (11), and Taylor Sheehan (10) work at the food station together feeding cancer survivors and some of those who participated in the walk.

WHAT URGES YOU TO HELP OR PARTICIPATE IN RELAY FOR LIFE?

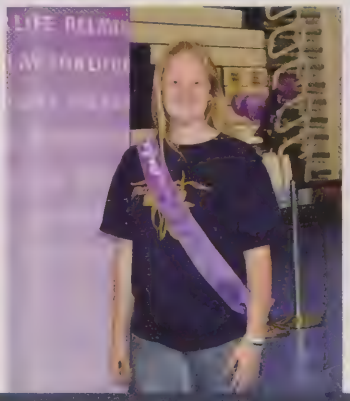


"The reason I relay is because my mother and my best friend died from cancer. My father, family members and friends have dealt with cancer. It's a horrible disease and I am hoping someday they will find a cure."
Mrs. Ahern

"It was our duty to support the high school, the Relay For Life organization, and to honor those who have survived and those who have lost their lives."
SGM Hoffman and JROTC



"I was at Relay for Life to honor my grandmother, Shelly Green, who was the most caring person in the world."
Jacob Green (9)



"My Pap had cancer and I wanted to help find a solution to cancer."
Samantha Wilt (10)

FFA Helpers
Members of FFA, help out during Relay For Life. They worked together to get their job done.

Eat Up!
Members of Relay For Life and Girls' Varsity help to feed those who came out to participate in Relay For Life.

Thank You
Mrs. Ahern, a staff member at Northern, donates a lot of her time organizing and participating in Relay For Life.

A Family Affair
Ally Kisner (11) and Abby Kisner (11) both agree and stated that, "Relay for Life means to everything to us, it gives us hope that one day there will be a cure for cancer."

Prepare Them Young
Mrs. Yost and her child showed up to Relay For Life. It is important to teach adults, children, and even infants the importance of what Relay For Life means.

Tradition
Even past students of Northern come out to participate in the walk to cure cancer.

The Big Picture
Relay For Life's mission is to raise funds to improve cancer survival, fight for a cure, and improve the quality of life for cancer patients and their caretakers.

Crowning the King
First-time winner, Eli Eggleston (12) gets crowned 2018 Prom King. Congratulations Eli!

The Anticipation
The members of the 2018 prom court wait to hear who gets the title of prom king and queen. It was an exciting moment for these seniors.

The Royals
Queen Carly Rodeheaver (12) and princess Jenna Yommer (12) smile with excitement after being crowned.

NIGHT OF OUR LIVES

A Night To Remember
The 2018 Junior. Senior Prom took place at The White Barn at Lucas Farm in Oakland. It was beautifully set up for a night of dancing and memories. Juniors and seniors alike enjoyed their evening with their friends.

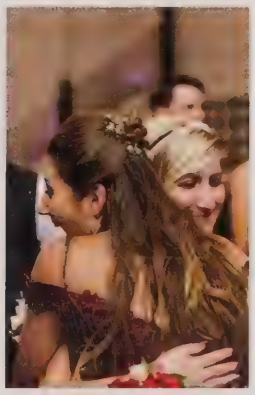
Having A Blast
Students really enjoyed prom this year. Cheyenne Garrett (12) and Samantha Gank (10) dance to the Cha Cha Slide. Jaden Lais (12) sings loudly along to the lyrics. Tristin Hobel (12) and his date pause to smile at the camera and Alessia Grazioli (11) enjoys the perks of being a senior in the United States. A lot of different memories were made that amazing evening.

Slow It Down A Little

When the music slows down so does the dancing. People grab their dates in for a slow dance. Micah Rollan (11) grins at the camera as he enjoys his time at the prom.

A MEMORY TO LAST A LIFETIME

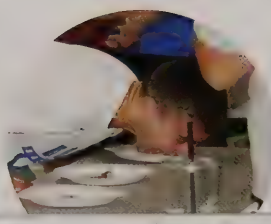
"Freeze, Everybody Clap Yo Hands..."
The Cha Cha Slide, a popular dance song, gets played often during Northern's formal events. Students line up to dance together to the familiar song.



Friends Are Everything!
Jillian Wood (11) and Sydney Glotfelty (11) hug it out during the event. Lots of people compliment each other's attire at formal events like prom. The two friends looked very beautiful that memorable night.

Painting Fun
Emily Mayles (10), Lillian Cuozzco (10) and friend enjoy the painting activity at after prom.

After prom shenanigans
Kayla Sisler (12), and her date and past graduate, Jake Toothman make a grand entrance into after prom.



Round One of Fear Factor
Ty Ultis (12) battles through the smell and texture of the slimy octopus, sardine, and chicken as he put these items in his mouth to advance to the next round.

Smile For The Camera
Bailey Burdock (12), and Damion Fazenbaker (11) peers and co-workers, paint together. This is Bailey's last time going to Prom or After Prom as a students at Northern High School.

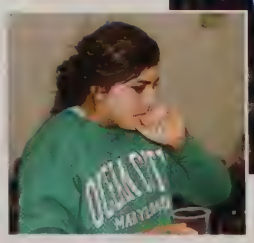
After Prom

What was your favorite part about after prom?

"My favorite part about after prom was all of the awesome activities. I enjoyed bubble soccer, dodge ball and laser tag."
...Bethany Umbel

What was the worst part about Fear Factor?

"Definitely when we had to get the ping-pong ball in the and drink whatever was in it: it was so nasty!"
...Olivia Bonitz



After The Prom
All students are allowed to come have fun after the prom with their friends and dates. Holly Schlossnagle (12) and her date enjoy a "tasty treat" while they take part in Fear Factor.

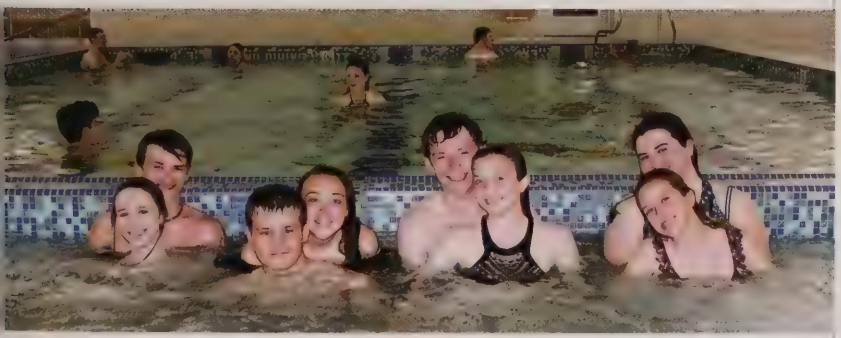
Eat, Beach, Sleep, and Repeat

So Much Fun
The fun did not end at prom. Afterprom brought students together where anyone ninth through twelfth could come and enjoy numerous fun activities. Emaleigh Gale (11) shoots her cross bow, Isaac Brenneman (12) participates in Fear Factor, Samantha Kennell (12) and her date paint together, and Michael Fazenbaker (11) and friend, Austin White Jones compete in a cornhole tournament. The night and morning was filled with lots of fun things to do.

"They See Me Rolling, They Hating"

Lucas Folk (11), plays soccer in the giant hamster balls. This activity was one of the the most popular activities at after prom.

BEACH PLEASE!



Life Is Cool By The Pool
Sophomores, Hunters Evans and date, Taylor Sheehan, Tyler Hare, Kyla Hull, Matthew Platter, Caitlyn Gilpin, and Kayleigh Tomblin take a break in the pool at after prom to take a photo together. After prom took place at the CARC, where students could swim and participate in other fun activities..

No Fear!
Seniors Olivia Bonitz, and Kayla Gutherie battle it out in the "Fear Factor" challenge. These girls went to the final round, placed third overall, and won $100.

"I Now Present to You the Graduating Class of 2018!"
Graduates toss their caps in the air to celebrate the completion of high school. Many students plan to continue their education in future years, but this is a major milestone for the entire class of 2018.

WE DID IT

Class of 2018!

"Behind Every Great Man There Is A Great Woman."
Alexis Burow pays tribute to Mrs. Reichenbecher during her graduation speech, thanking her for her years of support and giving her a nice assortment of flowers. She fondly referred to Mrs. Reichenbecher as the "first lady" of Northern High school.

Big Smiles

Ty Ultis, Savannah Lewis, Ty Kinzey and Caleb Barclay embrace and smile for a picture to capture and commemurate the moment. Celebrating friendships is an important part of graduation as many seniors know their lives will take them in different directions.

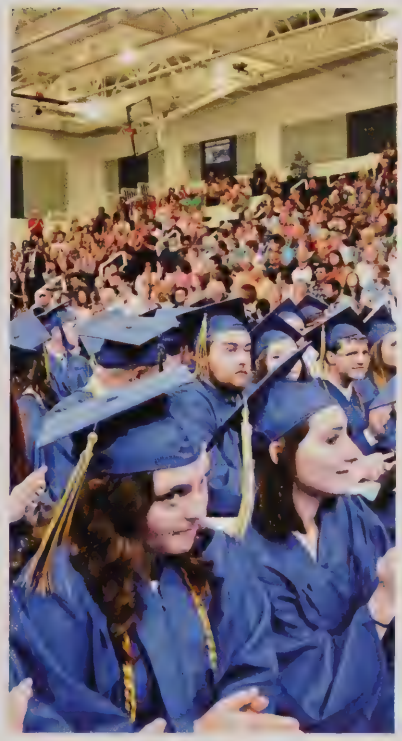
Valedictorian Chorchonova

Kanykei Chorchonova speaks very emotionally about her life and her experience at Northern for her graduation speech.

"I don't know."

Cassidy Murphy speaks about the reality of life after graduation. "Not everything is set in stone and our minds will change, and that is okay".



Awaiting That Diploma

The seniors wait expectently to cross the stage and receive their diplomas. Friends and family gathered to support the graduates.

"Complimeti"

Alessia Grazioli poses with her hostess Mom, and her brother. Her brother flew all the way from Italy to see his little sister graduate in the United States.

STAMINA, SPEED & STRENGTH

Northern High School Track

Leap! Chyanne Gardner (9) makes the leap during one of her first track meets.

Jumping In

New Accomplishments
First time track runner, James Spear accomplished a lot during his first year of track. One of his many accomplishments included his third place win at States running the 4x800 with Jakob Stozenfels, Ty Ultiz, and Jaden Lais.

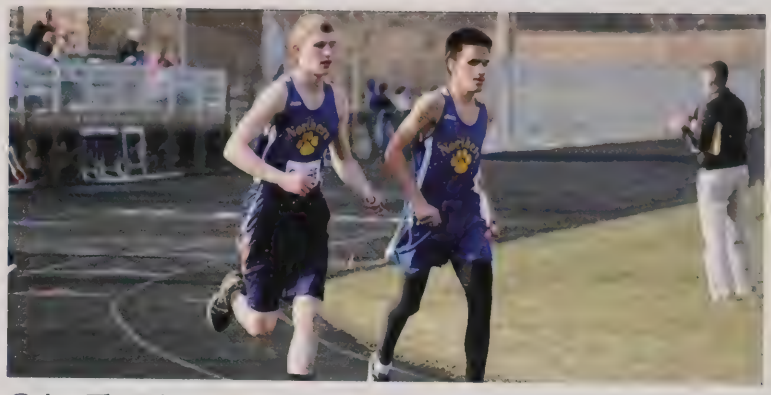
On Your Marks...Get Set...
Seniors, Angelo Ruggerio, Jaden Lais and Jakob Stozenfels get ready to begin the race. The boys have to be prepared mentally and physically to run their best.

Throwback '90

The Race For First!
Northern's first year of track was in 1990. Today, track is a popular sport among student athletes and has experienced a great deal of success..

Teamwork Makes The Dream Work!

Tiffany Niner (9) and Gabriell Blamble (10) hand off the baton during a relay race. The girls have to work together and push themselves hard to beat their competion. The passing of the baton is a crucial moment in the race and often determines who wins or loses.



Going The Distance!

Daniel Brenneman (10), is a guide for Brandon Pickrel (10) on the track team. Both are distance runners who had fun at the first meet of the season! It is their second year of running track together. This is a fun sport for the two friends!

What motivates you to run track?

Parker Miller (10)

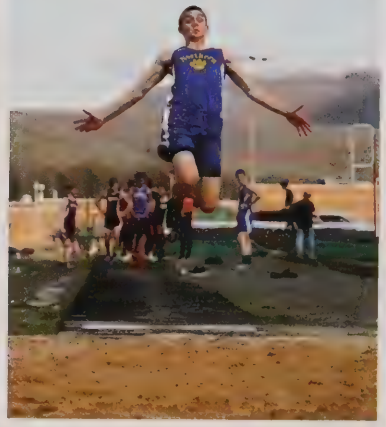
"Just the desire to improve."

Colten Jenkins (10)

"Coach's inspirational speeches before and after track meets"

Ana Rhoten (11)

"To compete and improve my times. I also love all the people who run."



1, 2, 3... Jump!

Jared Bittinger (10) soars high as he participates in the long jump event during a track and field meet. Jared has been on the track team both years he has been in high school.

Run Caleb, Run!

Caleb Barclay (12) pushes himself to achieve his personal best while running. Though it can be exhausting, students find the hard work rewarding as they see their times improve.

LIVE, LOVE, PLAY BALL!

Northern High School Softball

Swing! Kyliana Sisler (11) swings at the ball with a lot of force. Kyliana is a very dedicated player who has been playing for many years.

LET'S PLAY BALL

Hey Batter, Batter!
Senior, four-year softball player, Carly Rodeheaver helped the Lady Huskies' softball team to a successful season including wins against Fort Hill and Mountain Ridge. Carly was also named on the distinguished honor roll for her excellent performance in the classroom. Carly works hard on and off the field.

Throwback '99

Get Ready!
Melissa McKeever stretches out, with her foot still planted on base, to catch the ball. The 1999 Softball team ended their season with a record of 6-13. Can 2018 advance?

Yeah, We Did It!
The Lady Huskies softball team crowd together, smiling, laughing, and giving their teammate a pat on her helmet. Teams can't help but to celebrate after a win, so they do exactly that - showing how proud they are of their hardwork.

Keep Your Eye On The Ball

Emma Broadwater (11) seems focused as she bats at the ball, hoping for a homerun! With a good player like Emma, we can always count on her to hit a dinger.

Bittersweet Goodbyes

At senior night on the home field, McKenna Houser (11) gives Jacquelyn Morgan (12) a hug and flower to celebrate the bitter sweet reality that the seniors are almost ready to leave high school.

What was one of your most defining moments in softball?

Audrey Metts (9)

"Probably spending time with my team and having a great season."

Taylor Bittinger (9)

"My most memorable moment in softball is when we beat Mt. Ridge for my first time."

Mikayla Wilt (11)

"One of my most defining moments was during our game against Mt. Ridge when Carly Rodeheaver (12) was on third base and I was on second and a fast ball was pitched. Carly stole home and as I got to third the catcher threw the ball to the pitcher who wasn't covering the base, and I stole home plate to win the game. It was the first time we have beat them in years."

Get Ready!

Cassidy Uphold (11) waits in position to react to the batter to hit the ball. With her glove ready and out she's prepared to catch an infield ball.

Batter Up!

McKenna Houser (11) steps up to bat, with her game face on; you know it'll be a good one!

Swinging for Success!

Northern High School Baseball

Batter Up! Eli Eggleston (12) bats against Bishop Walsh. Eli was one of the senior members of the team, whose experience and skill helped bring the season to a successful close.

And You're Safe!
Baseball is America's Favorite Pastime and it continues to be a very popular, sport among students.

Boys Being Boys

The boys don't always have their game faces on. They still find time to joke around on and off the field. Team sports is a great way to make new friends and become closer with the ones you've already known. Its a team effort to play baseball, so the players must be on good terms to play effectively.

Throw Me The Ball

Carsyn King (11) stands ready, waiting to catch the ball and tag their Southern Ram opponent out. It's not just the one catching the ball under pressure during plays like this one. Outfield players and infield players must be quick on their feet to help retrieve the ball and get it to the appropriate base in time.

Stand Out!

Bradie Moore (11) demonstrates his skill by quickly retrieving and returning the ball to infield. Brady's hard work and dedication, as noted by his teammates, played an important role in their success this season .

Levi Kennell (9)

"I'm most proud of Mason for working hard and being a great pitcher."

Ian Tice (11)

"Bradie Moore, he puts in a lot of work before we even start practicing and it pays off on the mound."

Zachary Arnold (11)

"I respect Bradie Moore the most for keeping us in the Boonsboro Regional Championship game."

Pitching for a Win

Elliott Schilpp (11) winds up the pitch in hopes of striking out his opponent. The pitcher is an integral part of any baseball team's success, and Northern's is no exception.

Take A Squat

Cody Eyler (11) eyes up the ball waiting the for the batter to strike. Catchers must be alert at all times, not only to return the ball to the pitcher but to be ready for an opportunty to get an opponenet out at home base.

GAME, SET, MATCH

Northern High School Tennis

Let's Go! Ryan Harvey (10), playing doubles with his partner Anthony Paul (10), returns the ball with a forehand swing. Ryan has been playing tennis both years he has been in high school and has played well.

GETTING ALONG

Watching The Set
The girls during AMAC watch Sydney Glotfelty (11) play her match against Mountain Ridge. The girls relaxed and chatted with Mountain Ridge players. Sydney lost to Mountain Ridge, but she got 2nd in AMAC.

"Let's Talk To Coach."

On every odd set, tennis players are allowed to talk to their coach to get advice and to work out a plan for the next couple of games. This is also a time where players can take a break and get a drink. Tennis can be very exhausting depending on who you are playing.

Throwback '00

"Add-In, Add-Out"
Renee Meyers prepares her racket to sucessfully return the ball cross court. Meyers stated, "It seemed like the match lasted forver and almost every game went into add in and and add out." The season ended 8-4 for the girls and 6-6 for the boys.

Talking it Out

Communication is a very important part of playing tennis effectively. Anthony Paul 10) and Jesse Harman (10) almost run into each other while playing at Fort Hill High School to get to the ball first. The boys played a lot better when they started to call their balls. Unfortunately, they didn't come out victorious on that hot day. Anthony already played a match prior with Ryan Harvey (10) and lost against Fort Hill. Anthony says the best part of playing tennis is "spiking the ball into the other court."

Follow Through

One out of three seniors on the Ladies Tennis Team, Emily Nichols, follows through with her return to Frankfort High School. Throughout the 4 years Emily has played, the team has had 3 different coaches, one of which was her own mother Gail Nichols. With all the different coaches, the team became stronger throughout all the training.

What is the best and trickiest part of playing tennis?

Shawn Zimmerman (11)

"The the best part of playing tennis is that playing tennis is something I enjoy, and getting to tell everyone what to do. The trickiest part of playing tennis is hitting the ball in."

Megan Smith (11)

"The best part of playing tennis is competing in matches and constantly improving your skills. The trickiest part of playing tennis is the form. You have to get the form of hitting the ball down to make good hits."

Madison Toothman (11)

"The best part of playing tennis is hanging out with the team. The trickest part of playing tennis is that every opponent brings something new to the table."

Get Served!

Jillian Wood (11) serves a ball against Keysers girls' tennis team. With the heat beaming down, Jill played with determination as she competed in doubles and singles tennis against Keyser. Jillian says the best of playing tennis is, "My team. We're all best friends which makes bus rides and playing even better than it is."

Throw It High

Amber Jamison (11), playing 1st doubles with Emily Nichols (12) for the first time, serves against Bishop Walsh. Their first time playing together as partners went well; the pair won.

Spring is the time where students get to enjoy the nice warm weather after the cold winter snow. Although, in Garrett County you never know what mother nature may have in store for us! Each student is unique in his own way and enjoys different spring time activities. Although the school offers many opportunities for students to participate in extra-curricular activities, many students take part in various outside of school activities as well. Some students fish while others participate in motocross and dance. Some play sports, while others act, paint, or draw. Some choose to socialize and just spend time with their friends. Whatever their hobbies, many students are inspired by the warm weather to get active and enjoy time together.

What is your favorite thing about Spring?

"My favorite thing about spring is being able to go outside."
Elijah Baker (9)

"My favorite thing about spring is going out in the warm weather."
Katelynne Field (10)

"My favorite part is the weather, and being able to hang out with my friends."

SENIORS

Four years may not seem like a lifetime to some people, but for seniors it seems to be just that. Remember that first day of freshman year? We were all nervous for this next step in life, "high school." We all anticipated for it to be like the movies, but it doesn't end up that way. High school pushes you, encourages you, and maybe in some cases, pressures you be prepared for adulthood. But high school doesn't have to be all about preparedness. High school is the time where you get to find yourself, make mistakes, have fun, and grow. When we look back on all our younger years, we should only look back and smile at what we did and have accomplished in our young lives. "We did it!" We are seniors...We made it... It is the best time of our young adult lives. Live it up, because one day this will only be a memory to look back on. Hopefully, you smile, because those memories will last a lifetime.

Six Flags America
Seniors wait to enter the amusement park, Six Flags America in Woodmore, Maryland.

We Are Seniors
Those who went on the trip took a group photo with their peers to remember the fun night.

Relax
Blake DeWitt, Stephanie Bryner, Braidan Thomas, and Logan McClintock sit down and relax for a little after eating a big meal.

It's Hamster Time
A group of seniors wear black shirts and hamster heads during the senior parade..

Throwback 2015

One Last Time

A Bright Future
Each year, seniors go on a trip together to celebrate their achievements and have fun as a class one last time. This group of seniors enjoy a sunset cruise after a long day at the amusement park and talk about what the future might hold for them.

Boats do not travel very fast. Ronald Shartiger and Cassidy Murphy wait for the boat to get from point A to point B.

Just Having Fun
Jakob Stozenfels, Chloe Harvey, and Jarrett Kelly play foosball against Dominican Republic students who also attended the dinner cruise.

LET'S PLAY!

Senior Trip
Seniors got to enjoy an eventful and very enjoyable day together on a warm cloudy day. The seniors who attended got to go to Six Flags America in Woodmore, Maryland then enjoyed a dinner cruise in Washington, DC. Leighanna Wilhelm enjoys herself on a water ride, Angela Wiland gobbles up her very expensive chili cheese fries, James Spear chats up his friends on the bus, and Deeva Thrasher looks at the map of Six Flags to figure out where she would like to go next.

"We Barely Survived!"

Seniors, Larissa Savage, Kayla Sisler, Holly Schlossnagle, Kanykei Chorchonova, and Rachel Sivits pose in t-shirts they designed and made for the senior parade.

DINNER CRUISE

Enjoying The Sunset!
Seniors walk around the deck of the boat to enjoy the breeze and watch the sun set in Washington, DC.

Chaperones Eat First
The boat DJ declared that the chaperones were to eat first because, "If it wasn't for them you wouldn't be here at all." Thank you, Chaperones!

Literay Art Magazine

"The Voices of the Vault Liteary Art Magazine was forged...to provide our young artists and writers a space to display their work. The focus of the magazine's members is to collect submissions from the student body and through a peer selection process, decide which pieces will be included in the magazine publication. As an avid reader and lover of the arts, working with this ardent group of students has been an aspiration turned into reality." -Ms. Roller

Lettermen Club

'Hopefully there is still a pride factor among the guys to be in the club, being a former three-sport Letterman. I understand that in some sports, it is more difficult to earn a rsity Letter, and that should be something to be proud of! It is also important that we are able to give back to the community with donations from the club." -Mr. Carr

CLUBS

Nicklin's Reel to Real History

"My enrichment was inspired by a TV show on the History channel. We watch movies based on true stories and events and then discuss what and why it really happened and compare and contrast the movie to the true story and real events. My goal is that students learn more about history through movies. We recently watched Dunkirk (World War ll battle where civilians rescued over 300,000 Allied troops)...and Megan Leavey (a marine attempts to save her bomb sniffling dog in Iraq." -Mr. Nicklin

--

"Mr Nicklin gives me the best fashion advice." Cross Ritchie "This enrichment was great. I wish I could have finished it." - Brody Collins "I ditched my girlfriend and FFA for this awesome enrichment." - Donnie Kamp "This enrichment gave me confidence to talk to girls."-Jacob Green

Relay For Life

"I got involved with Relay when we first started the event here at NHS, and each year it makes you stop and appreciate the survivors, caregivers, or those who lost the battle. Especially what they had to deal with while fighting this horrible disease called CANCER...I will help in whatever way I can to find a cure. Two parts of the event that are so touching for everyone is first, the survivor's lap, where everyone is clapping and ringing bells for those special people walking that first lap with their family and friends. The second extremely touching part is the luminary ceremony where bags are lit for survivors, in memory of those who lost their lives and for all the caregivers who give so much of their time. Just to walk past all those lit bags in the dark is an emotional experince. If you have never attended a Relay for Life event, you really need to check one out. You will be touched! " -Mrs. Ahern
